STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 14.4, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; LR IA 10-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2.4 [Deliberately omitted]

2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.”

2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to

1 discovery in this matter.

2 2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to
3 the litigation who (1) has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as
4 a consultant in this action, (2) is not a past or current employee of a Party or of a Party's competitor,
5 and (3) at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or of a Party's 6 competitor.

7 2.8 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Information or 8 Items: extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items," disclosure of which to another Party
9 or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less 10 restrictive means.

11 2.9 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" Information or Items: extremely 12 sensitive "Confidential Information or Items" representing computer code and associated comments
13 and revision histories, formulas, engineering specifications, or schematics that define or otherwise 14 describe in detail the algorithms or structure of software or hardware designs, disclosure of which 15 to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be 16 avoided by less restrictive means.

17 2.10 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel
18 does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

19 2.11 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 20 entity not named as a Party to this action.

21 2.12 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action
22 but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on 23 behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

24 2.13 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees,
25 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

26 2.14 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery
27 Material in this action.

28 2.15 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services

(e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.16 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.”

2.17 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

1 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

2 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 3 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 4 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. To the 5 extent it is practical to do so, the Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts
 6 of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions
 7 of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not
 8 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

9 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown
 10 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily
 11 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens
 12 on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

13 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 14 protection do not qualify for protection at all or do not qualify for the level of protection initially 15 asserted, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the 16 mistaken designation.

17 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, 18 e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or 19 Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated 20 before the material is disclosed or produced.

21 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

22 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding 23 transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the 24 legend "CONFIDENTIAL," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or 25 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" to each page that contains protected material. To 26 the extent it is practical to do so, if only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 27 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 28 appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection

1 being asserted.

2 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection
3 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material
4 it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the 5 material made available for inspection shall be deemed “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
6 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants
7 copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof,
8 qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the 9 Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY
10 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE
11 CODE”) to each page that contains Protected Material. To the extent it is practical to do so, if only a
12 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must 13 clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and 14 must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted.

15 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 16 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 17 proceeding, all protected testimony and specify the level of protection being asserted. When it is 18 impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection and it
19 appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Designating Party
20 may invoke on the record (before the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding is concluded) a right
21 to have up to 21 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is 22 sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony
23 that are appropriately designated for protection within the 21 days shall be covered by the provisions
24 of this Stipulated Protective Order. Alternatively, a Designating Party may specify, at the deposition
25 or up to 21 days afterwards if that period is properly invoked, that the entire transcript shall be
26 treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

27 If asked by a Party, the other Party shall give the Party notice if they reasonably expect a
28 deposition, hearing or other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can

1 ensure that only authorized individuals who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to
2 Be Bound” (Exhibit A) are present at those proceedings. The use of a document as an exhibit at a
3 deposition shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY
4 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

5 Transcripts containing Protected Material shall have an obvious legend on the title page that
6 the transcript contains Protected Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all pages
7 (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material and the 8 level of protection being asserted by the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall inform the 9 court reporter of these requirements. Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 21-
10 day period for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated “HIGHLY 11 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in its entirety unless otherwise agreed. After 12 the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated.

13 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible
14 items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or 15 containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY
16 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE
17 CODE”. If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing 18 Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s) and specify the level of 19 protection being asserted.

20 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

21 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 22 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality 23 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 24 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to 25 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 26 original designation is disclosed.

27 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process 28 by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each

challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice-to-voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under LR 7-2 (and in compliance with LR IA 10-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions.

Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 15 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner¹ that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

(a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

¹ It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to require the Receiving Party to store any electronic Protected Material in password-protected form.

1 (d) the court and its personnel;

2 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional
3 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

4 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably
5 necessary. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected
6 Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except 7 as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

8 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other
9 person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

10 7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” and 11 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered
12 by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 13 information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or 14 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” only to:

15 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of 16 said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for 17 this litigation;

18 (b) [Deliberately Omitted]

19 (c) Experts of the Receiving Party (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 20 litigation, (2) who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A),
21 and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4(a)(2), below, have been followed;

22 (d) the court and its personnel;

23 (e) court reporters and their staff:

24 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom
25 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment 26 and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and

27 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other
28 person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

7.4 Procedures for Approving or Objecting to Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” Information or Items to Experts.

(a)(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an Expert (as defined in this Order) any information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” pursuant to paragraph 7.3(c) first must make a written request to the Designating Party that (1) identifies the general categories of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” information that the Receiving Party seeks permission to disclose to the Expert, (2) sets forth the full name of the Expert and the city and state of his or her primary residence, (3) attaches a copy of the Expert’s current resume, (4) identifies the Expert’s current employer(s), (5) identifies each person or entity from whom the Expert has received compensation or funding for work in his or her areas of expertise or to whom the expert has provided professional services, including in connection with a litigation, at any time during the preceding five years,² and (6) identifies (by name and number of the case, filing date, and location of court) any litigation in connection with which the Expert has offered expert testimony, including through a declaration, report, or testimony at a deposition or trial, during the preceding five years.³

(b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in the preceding respective paragraphs may disclose the subject Protected Material to the Expert unless, within 7 court days of delivering the request, the Party receives a written objection from the Designating Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which it is based.

² If the Expert believes any of this information is subject to a confidentiality obligation to a third-party, then the Expert should provide whatever information the Expert believes can be disclosed without violating any confidentiality agreements, and the Party seeking to disclose to the Expert shall be available to meet and confer with the Designating Party regarding any such engagement.

³ It may be appropriate in certain circumstances to restrict the Expert from undertaking certain limited work prior to the termination of the litigation that could foreseeably result in an improper use of the Designating Party’s “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information.

(c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer with the Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by agreement within seven calendar days of the written objection. If no agreement is reached, the Party seeking to make the disclosure to the Expert may file a motion as provided in LR 7-2 (and in compliance with LR IA 10-5, if applicable) seeking permission from the court to do so. Any such motion must describe the circumstances with specificity, set forth in detail the reasons why the disclosure to the Expert is reasonably necessary, assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail, and suggest any additional means that could be used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration describing the parties' efforts to resolve the matter by agreement (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and setting forth the reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.

In any such proceeding, the Party opposing disclosure to the Expert shall bear the burden of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards proposed) outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Expert.

8. PROSECUTION BAR

Absent written consent from the Producing Party, any individual who receives access to "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" information shall not be involved in the prosecution of patents or patent applications relating to biometric liveness detection, including without limitation the patents asserted in this action and any patent or application claiming priority to or otherwise related to the patents asserted in this action, before any foreign or domestic agency, including the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("the Patent Office"). For purposes of this paragraph, "prosecution" includes directly or indirectly drafting, amending, advising, or otherwise affecting the scope or maintenance of patent claims.⁴ To avoid any doubt, "prosecution" as used in this paragraph does not include (a) representing a party challenging a patent before a domestic or foreign agency (including, but not limited to, a reissue protest, ex parte reexamination or inter partes

⁴ Prosecution includes, for example, original prosecution, reissue and reexamination proceedings.

1 reexamination), or (b) providing information that may qualify as prior art for possible
2 submission/disclosure during prosecution. This Prosecution Bar shall begin when access to
3 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
4 SOURCE CODE” information is first received by the affected individual and shall end two (2) years
5 after final termination of this action.

6 9. SOURCE CODE

7 (a) To the extent production of source code becomes necessary in this case, a Producing
8 Party may designate source code as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE” if it
9 comprises or includes confidential, proprietary or trade secret source code.

10 (b) Protected Material designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”
11 shall be subject to all of the protections afforded to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’
12 EYES ONLY” information including the Prosecution Bar set forth in Paragraph 8, and may be 13 disclosed only to the individuals to whom “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
14 ONLY” information may be disclosed, as set forth in Paragraphs 7.3 and 7.4.

15 (c) Any source code produced in Disclosure or Discovery Material shall be made 16 available for inspection, in a format allowing it to be reasonably reviewed and searched, during 17 normal business hours or at other mutually agreeable times, at a location determined by the 18 Producing Party. If practical, the Producing Party shall make all reasonable efforts to choose a
19 location that is reasonably convenient for the Receiving Party and any experts to whom the source
20 code may be disclosed. The Receiving Party shall not copy, remove, or otherwise transfer any 21 portion of the source code onto any recordable media or recordable device. The Producing Party
22 may visually monitor the activities of the Receiving Party’s representatives during any source code
23 review, but only to ensure that there is no unauthorized recording, copying, or transmission of the 24 source code. The parties may also jointly agree to alternative means for making source code
25 available for inspection. The Receiving Party shall keep a record indicating the names of any 26 individuals inspecting the source code and dates and times of inspection

27 (d) The Receiving Party may request paper copies of limited portions of source code that 28 are reasonably necessary for the preparation of court filings, pleadings, expert reports, or other papers, or for deposition or trial, but shall not request paper copies for the purposes of reviewing the source code other than electronically as set forth in paragraph (c) in the first instance. The Producing Party shall provide all such source code in paper form including bates numbers and the label “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - SOURCE CODE.” The Producing Party may challenge the amount of source code requested in hard copy form pursuant to the dispute resolution procedure and timeframes set forth in Paragraph 6 whereby the Producing Party is the “Challenging Party” and the Receiving Party is the “Designating Party” for purposes of dispute resolution. The parties may also jointly agree to alternative means for copying source code.

(e) The Receiving Party shall maintain all paper copies of any printed portions of the source code in a secured, locked area. The Receiving Party shall not create any electronic or other images of the paper copies and shall not convert any of the information contained in the paper copies into any electronic format. The Receiving Party shall only make additional paper copies of Source Code if such additional copies are (1) necessary to prepare court filings, pleadings, or other papers (including a testifying expert’s expert report), (2) necessary for deposition, or (3) otherwise necessary for the preparation of its case. Any paper copies used during a deposition shall be retrieved by the Producing Party at the end of each day and must not be given to or left with a court reporter or any other unauthorized individual. The parties may also jointly agree to alternative means for maintaining materials that contain source code.

10. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this

1 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

2 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 3 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

4 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena
5 or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or
6 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
7 SOURCE CODE” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued,
8 unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear
9 the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing
10 in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this 11 action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

12 11. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 13 LITIGATION

14 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in 15 this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
16 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”. Such 17 information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies
18 and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a 19 Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

20 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-
21 Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 22 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

23 1. promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some 24 or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

25 2. promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective 26 Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of 27 the information requested; and

28 3. make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

(c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

12. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) to the extent required above, request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

13. INADVERTENT OR UNINTENTIONAL PRODUCTION OF CONFIDENTIAL, PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

Inadvertent or unintentional disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" Information during the course of this Lawsuit, without designating it as such at the time of disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver by the Producing Party in whole or in part of a claim that disclosed information is "CONFIDENTIAL," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" Information, provided that such item is so designated within five (5) business days after the Producing Party learned of the inadvertent or unintentional disclosure.

In addition, the production or disclosure of documents or other information subject to the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or other privilege shall not be deemed a waiver of a claim of privilege by the Producing Party, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other related information. If a Producing Party produces or otherwise discloses to a Receiving Party information that the Producing Party deems is subject to such privilege or immunity, the Producing Party shall promptly upon discovery of such disclosure so advise the Receiving Party in writing and request that the disclosed information be returned. The Receiving Party shall return all copies of the produced material within five business days of receipt of the request and may not sequester, use or disclose the information until the privilege claim is resolved. This includes a restriction against the Receiving Party presenting the information to the court for a determination of the claim. Any notes or summaries referring or relating to the produced privileged material shall also be destroyed.

Nothing in this Order shall preclude the Receiving Party from moving the Court for a ruling that the produced material was never privileged or that the privilege was otherwise waived on some other basis.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

14.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

14.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

14.3 Export Control. Disclosure of Protected Material shall be subject to all applicable laws and regulations relating to the export of technical data contained in such Protected Material, including the release of such technical data to foreign persons or nationals in the United States or elsewhere. The Producing Party shall be responsible for identifying any such controlled technical data, and the Receiving Party shall take measures necessary to ensure compliance.

14.4 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the

1 public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected
2 Material must comply with LR IA 10-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant
3 to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to LR
4 IA 10-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at 5 issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If
6 a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to LR IA 10-5 is denied
7 by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the Protected Material in the public record pursuant 8 to LR IA 10-5 unless otherwise instructed by the court.

9 15. FINAL DISPOSITION

10 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each
11 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
12 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,
13 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Upon 14 request by the Producing Party, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 15 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) within 21-days of 16 such request that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was 17 returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has made reasonable efforts to ensure 18 that it has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format
19 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the District of Nevada in the case of FACETEC, INC., v. iPROOV LTD, Case No. 2:21-cv-02252. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

I hereby appoint _____ as my Nevada agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.
